Ben,

I am writing to let you know that I have decided to end our relationship. This decision is final, and I will not be engaging with you any further. I am also requesting that you delete all videos and content involving me immediately and confirm that they have been permanently deleted. Please respect my boundaries and do not contact me again via phone, email, social media, or any other means. I am blocking your contact information and will not be available for any further discussion. Thank you for respecting my decision and my privacy. Amber Please CC me on the email when you send it

Ben,

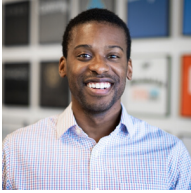

I am writing to follow up on Amber's request for you to delete all videos and content involving her and to confirm that they have been permanently deleted. Amber has made a clear and final decision to end all contact with you. I am here to ensure that this boundary is upheld and respected.

I am aware of your history of abusive behavior, especially towards women, from your time as the head of the Kansas Democratic Party—a pattern documented through public reports and corroborated by former colleagues. Given this background, it's essential that you understand there will be no further opportunities for contact with Amber. Any attempt to circumvent her boundary, directly or indirectly, will be considered a serious violation, and I will take all necessary legal actions to protect her.

Please respond to this email by 5pm Eastern on Monday, November 11 confirming that you have permanently deleted all content involving Amber and that you will not attempt to initiate contact again, under any circumstances.

I expect your cooperation and adherence to this request.

Regards,

Ben,

This is a final reminder regarding the request to delete all videos and other content involving Amber and content involving me that she shared with you without my consent, which has not yet been confirmed. Please confirm within 24 hours that all relevant content has been permanently deleted and that no copies exist on any devices or storage.

Failure to respond or comply will lead us to pursue further action to protect Amber's privacy and reputation.

Thank you for respecting this request.
