Hi Shingi,

Below is a list of all documents requested for our divorce process. I'm sharing with you now and will send a link of all of my documents once I return to Missouri. No need to share our tax docs since we already have those together.

Please provide this info before you leave for Cape Town in July.

Thanks,
Amber

Subject: List of Financial Documents

To: amber mcintosh <mcintosh.amberrenee@gmail.com>

Hi Amber! Below is a list of financial documents we need to move forward with our analysis:

- ☐ Paycheck Stubs for the last 4 months
- ☐ Tax Returns and W-2s for the last 3 years
- ☐ Health Insurance Coverage documentation. Please provide a breakdown of the insurance premium (i.e. amount to cover self, spouse, child(ren)).
- ☐ Most recent Mortgage Statement)
- ☐ Last 12 months of Checking and Savings Account Statements
- ☐ Last 12 months of Statements for any other financial account(s)
- ☐ Documentation for all Stocks, Bonds, etc.

- ☐ Documentation of any Business Interests
- ☐ Kelley Blue Book Report(s) for all vehicles - please run report(s) online at www.kbb.com
- ☐ Documentation of Life Insurance Policies
- ☐ Recent Retirement, PERS, FERS, 401(k) Statement(s)
- ☐ Credit Report - please obtain an online credit report. You can usually obtain a one free report each year from each of the three credit agencies. You only need to provide one report from one agency. Please see www.FreeCreditReport.com for more information.
- ☐ Past 12 months of Statements for all Credit Cards or Store Accounts. Please designate who is the cardholder for each card (i.e. who is the primary, secondary, or authorized user). This is important so please call the credit card company if the information is unknown.
- ☐ Documentation for any personal loans owed to you or by you

Please let me know if you have any questions!

Thanks for the financial document list. I'll gather the standard items as I complete them over the next few weeks.

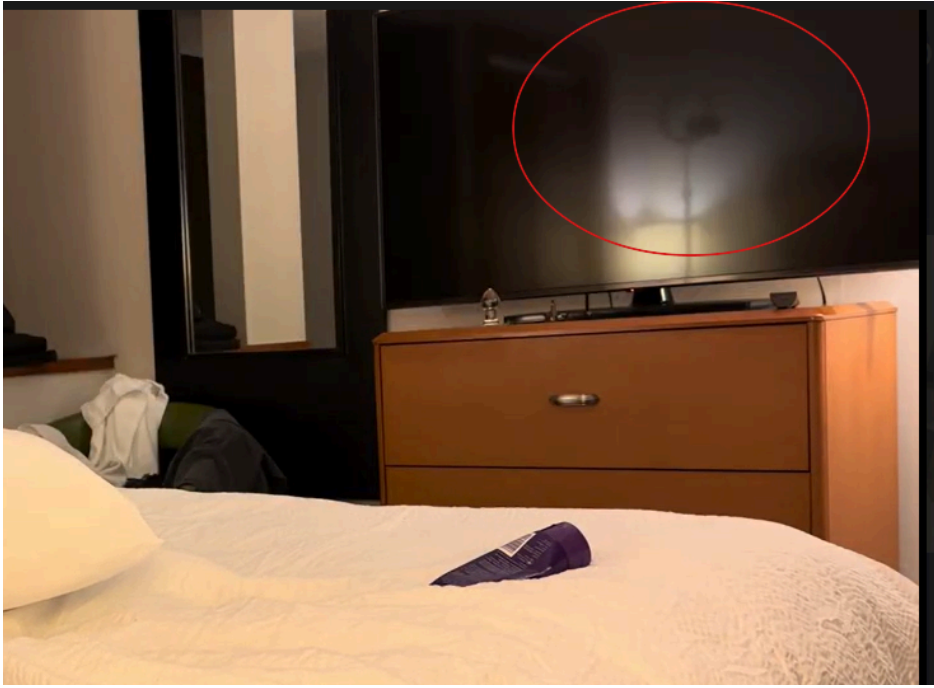

We also need disclosure of all commercial sex work revenue. Your October 15-16, 2024 production schedule with Ben, for example, shows clear commercial activity:

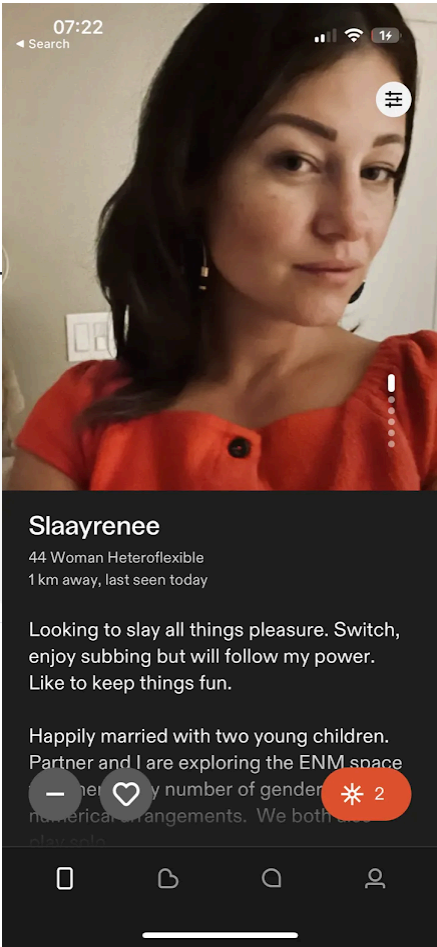

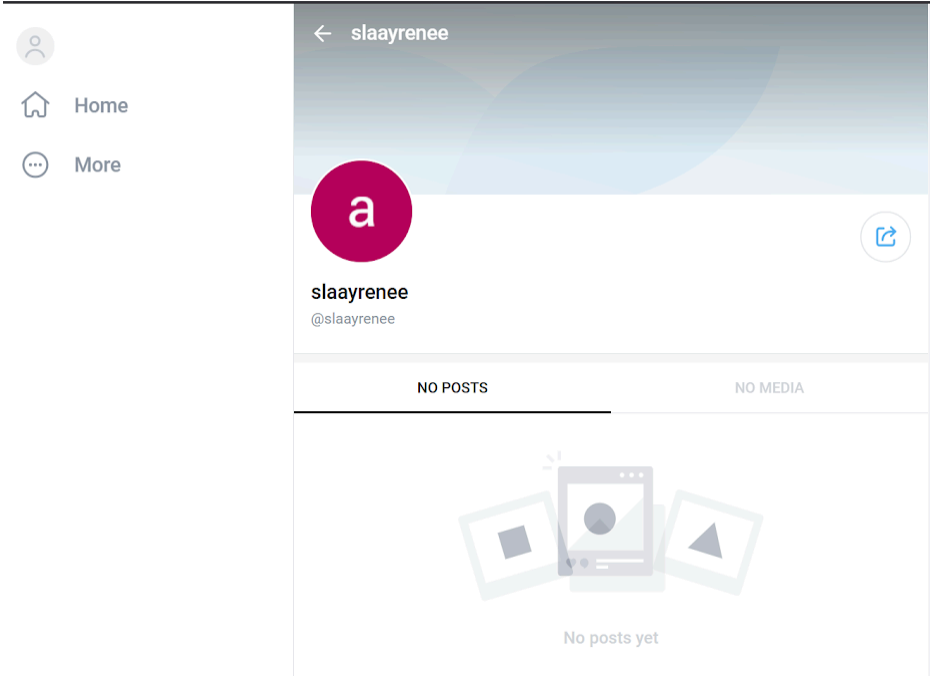

Date	Time	Video	Content
10/15	9:08 PM	IMG_2932	Professional casting couch setup
10/15	10:43 PM	IMG_2935	Casting couch scene
10/15	10:58 PM	IMG_2936	Casting couch scene

Date	Time	Video	Content
10/16	3:18 AM	IMG_2939	Elaborate hair and makeup
10/16	4:01 AM	IMG_2940	Continued session
10/16	4:09 PM	IMG_2945	Continuation of prior scene with same outfit
10/16	4:12 PM	IMG_2946	Resumes 3 minutes later

19-hour production timeline + professional lighting + elaborate hair and makeup + verified OnlyFans account (slaayrenee) = commercial operation in the eyes of IRS. Please provide all Venmo/PayPal/cash/crypto payments from these activities plus Ben's itemized cost contributions (hotel room, equipment, sex toys, etc). We need to immediately amend our 2024 tax filing for unreported income/business expenses.

Thanks for gathering the financial documents.

There was no professional activity that was done for profit and so no need to update any tax info.

Thanks,

Amber

As long as you have a verified account on OnlyFans, Ben can create a second account, post any of the content he has with you, and tag your account to bypass content collaborator requirements without your knowledge. The system doesn't notify tagged collaborators or require approval for each upload. He has enough content from 2024 alone to slow drip for years without your involvement at all.

Unless you have access to his account names or are notified by Ben, there's no public method to discover unauthorized content posting and you'll have to contact OnlyFans support. You may have IRS reporting requirements as a participant in income generating activity (even outside OnlyFans) even if Ben doesn't give you a cut. Ignorance of what he's doing with your content isn't a defense during audits, and since we filed jointly for 2024, I share in the liability.

If you have not received income, then complete verification requires a sworn affidavit from you attesting to that and from Ben that he has not monetized any content through any platform or account. Without this sworn affidavit, we cannot complete financial disclosure. As you noted, complete financial disclosure from both sides is required before we can discuss asset division or proceed with any HELOC modifications.

The reason why Amber wasn't talking today. She literally fled back into the house when she saw me in the car.

Basically, I exposed to her how she had been doing unpaid sex work for a guy she thought was her lover, but who in fact had been e-pimping her videos and images on OnlyFans.
