Mr. Samudzi,

I acknowledge receipt of your April 17, 2026 and April 22, 2026 emails, along with the referenced correspondence and attachments.

My client and I dispute the factual and legal characterizations in your messages. Nothing in this response should be construed as an admission, agreement, or waiver of any kind. All responses, objections, and positions concerning the December 16, 2025 hearing, Ms. McIntosh's Property and Debt Statement, her Form 14, the Newton rental property, the Union State Bank accounts, and your First Interrogatories will be made through the proper procedural channels, including formal discovery responses and filings with the Court as appropriate.

To the extent you intend to supplement the record or seek relief from the Court, please do so through proper motion practice with notice. Continued email correspondence that attempts to relitigate prior hearings or argue the merits of pending issues outside the record is not productive and will not be substantively addressed here.

-Tana Benner
