Hi Rick,

I'm writing to verify the current payment status on the mortgage for 502 E. 10th St, Newton, Kansas.

As you may recall from our June 2025 communication regarding Amber's HELOC inquiry, we are both obligated parties on this mortgage.

I've recently discovered that the Capital One savings account (ending in 6077) that historically received rental income and from which mortgage payments were auto-deducted was closed by Amber on November 7, 2025. I now have zero visibility into whether mortgage payments are being made.

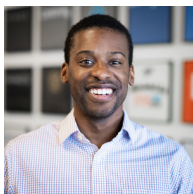

Can you please confirm:

1. Current payment status (whether November payment has been received)
2. Account/method payments are currently coming from
3. Any missed or late payments since November 7, 2025
4. How I can be added to payment notifications going forward

Given that we are in dissolution proceedings (Case No. 25BA-FC01732, Boone County Circuit Court), I need to ensure this jointly-owned property is protected and obligations are being met.

Please respond at your earliest convenience.

Hi Shingi,

Thanks for the forwarded e-mail. As you probably saw, Rick is out of the bank this week, but I am happy to answer your questions.

1. The loan is current with the next payment due on 12-01-2025.
2. I understand that Rick is currently working with Amber to get something set up from a different account than the one that the payments were historically made from (the one ending in 0677). You may want to confirm with him when he returns next week Monday.
3. There are no late or missed payments since November 7, 2025.
4. There is not a way for you to be directly alerted with payments made. However, we do offer online banking, and you are welcome to get this set up so that you can view the history and details of the loan. To do this you would simply go to our bank website (www.MyUnionState.Bank); click on the navy "Login" button; and then select "Enroll" to proceed with the steps to set things up. I think you will find it as a great way to monitor the activity and details to ensure your payments are being made in a timely manner, etc.

Please also note that I've carbon copied Rick into my reply so that he is aware of our communication.

Thanks,

Marci

Hi,

Per your prior instructions, I completed online account setup about a month ago. The system indicated Union State Bank action is required to complete activation.

As of January 25, 2026, I have received no follow-up and still lack access to the joint mortgage account for which I am a co-obligor.

Please complete the account activation or advise what is causing the delay.
