Dear Belinda,

I am writing to bring a serious matter to your attention concerning your employee, Ben Meers, which may pose a potential risk to your organization.

Nature of Concern:

Since November 2024, I have made multiple documented attempts to resolve a private matter with Mr. Meers regarding sensitive content in his possession. Specifically:

- Mr. Meers possesses explicit videos and recordings of my wife (Ms. McIntosh), created during a period when she was experiencing significant documented mental health challenges.
- On November 8, 2024, my wife formally, in writing, revoked any consent for Mr. Meers to retain these materials and requested their complete deletion.
- Despite multiple written communications from both of us (most recently a pre-litigation demand letter on May 18, 2025), Mr. Meers has not responded to these reasonable requests.

Resolution Sought:

Our requests have been straightforward and reasonable:

- Complete deletion of all such sensitive content from all devices and storage locations.
- Provision of a notarized statement confirming such deletion and affirming no copies have been or will be distributed.
- Cessation of all contact with my wife and our family.

Reason for Employer Notification:

I am bringing this matter to DS Political's attention for several reasons:

- The continued possession of such material without consent presents ongoing harm to my wife, who has had to seek therapeutic care due to the particularly degrading nature of the videos that Mr. Meers directed.
- Mr. Meers' persistent non-responsiveness to reasonable requests regarding consent and boundaries raises concerns about professional conduct.

- As an organization working to advance Democratic values and candidates, DS Political's reputation depends on maintaining the highest ethical standards among its team members.
- We understand the timeframe during which these recordings were made overlaps with the period related to previous abuse allegations that led to Mr. Meers' forced resignation from the Democratic Party in Kansas, suggesting these behaviors have continued even after facing significant professional consequences.

Request for Assistance:

I respectfully request that DS Political:

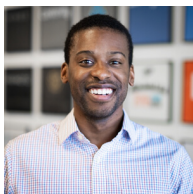

1. Acknowledge receipt of this notice within seven business days.
2. Consider whether internal policies and organizational values permit the company to facilitate resolution of this matter.
3. Provide a point of contact for any necessary follow-up communications.

To be clear, our sole objective is the permanent deletion of this sensitive content and written confirmation thereof. This matter fundamentally concerns my wife's consent, mental health and dignity—values I believe your organization champions. Once resolved, we consider the issue closed and have no interest in further action.

I am available to provide additional context or documentation as needed and appreciate your attention to this sensitive matter.

Respectfully,

--
